A little piece of art

Perfect as a gift for yourself or someone special.

Ceramic tiles, HD printed on demand, drawn by hand, no fancy effects, minimal lines, bold colors and made with care. A small delight to brighten up your life.

Quiet

Sometimes you just need a small moment of stillness.

This is the view from our house in Asturias; the place where I recharge and find inspiration. Gazing through the window, I see a valley that looks like a small painting: just a few lines separating shades of green. This simplicity inspired me to return to illustration.

Art

My goal was to capture that serene feeling with art – drawn by hand, no fancy effects, no filters, just minimal lines and strong colors. Returning to the essential. I wanted to experience this sense of peace in my home in Amsterdam as well. That was the start of creating that same quiet beauty into a 'window' view you can enjoy anywhere.

Tales

These illustrations are about everything that inspires me: nature, film, culture, women... life.

Printed on ceramic tiles to serve as decorative art, they are designed to bring that same tranquility and beauty into every home and space.

Welcome to the world of Quiet Art Tales.
